The Ningara of the West—The Great Shoshonee Falls.

(Prom the Salt Lave Union) Vedette May 21.]

Away in the wilds of Idaho, midway hetween Salt Late and Oregon, the air is thundering and the earth is rent by a catanact as imposing as Niagara. Situate on the sagebrush plains, which calmly sleep between the Rocky Mountains and the Cascade Range, and are alike unto antel by Oeres or the god of gold, the Creat Shoshonee is a world wender which for savage accenery and power sublime stands unrivalled in America. As tourist uil, the catanacts of Southern Asia and the Falls of the fair Rh ne, the Victoria Falls, of Zambezi, Africa, as explored by Lvingston, and the Falls of Staubach. Switzerland, as immortalized in Byron's Manfred, may each have special chums which won celebrity for special points, but as a whole, for wildness and for witchery, for widness and for witchery, for wind and volume, this "Niagara of the Westwill stand second to muse of all These falls of the busic or Law Firk of the Columbia, have been but a ccupic of yoars discovered, and have teen seen as ye by scarce as many as res of white min, but before a few more years, with steam communication stretching from Salt Lake to the Columbia, have been but a scape of yoars discovered, and have teen seen as ye by scarce as many as res of white min, but before a few more years, with steam communication stretching from Salt Lake to the Columbia, their schine is distinct the "Gem of the Monutains which contains none of its counties they have it the Creat when the primes to gold and siver raines. The white foan ing waters form a brilliant sackground to the magic prisms pictured by the spray. The dark fr wanny rocks, relieved by the spray. The dark fr wanny rocks, relieved by the right green junipers, make a titing frame furthis magnificent sg't, second to none in point of viltume as it is second to none in passage grandeur. As measured by officers of the list Oregon infantry, encamped adjoining, the main fall is 210 feet from the edge to the level of the water below. The upper falls have not yet been measured, but the total fall of the river, on the three distinct tumbles it takes, cannot be less than three hundred feet, while the river itself is over four hundred feet at its narrowest width. The channel of the stream below the fails is a chasm 1,500 feet in width and 1,000 in depth, with perpendicular walls of rock inclosing it.

12. On the subject of "calves," the editor of the Richmond Humming Bird is musical as follows:

Domestic autimals generally seem to be doing well this spring. The last few windy dave have been particularly favorable for the development of "calves." There have, perhaps, been no periods in the history of this city where so many of them have beet seen on the streets. They mostly go in pairs. While many of them have beet seen on the streets. They mostly go in pairs. While many of them are quite slim and gauntthis spring, others appear remarkably large and thrifty, and we are informed that in many cases have nearly doubled their size in a single night. To a city-bred young gentleman no branch of stock-growing is so peculiarly interest-

At the Grand Hotel in Paris, the other day, were visitors from England, America, Holland, Germany, Finland, Bussia, Poland, Hungary, Turkey, Algeria, Spain, Portugal, Sweden, Denmark, Greece. Armenia, Hindostan, and Chiua.
